Durham Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Durham, N. C., September 9.—Mrs. E. J. Parrish entertained on Thursday afternoon at a luncheon at which the announcement of the engagement of Miss Rosa Green and Walter L. Dick was made. The wedding to take place was made attractive with quantities of plants and flowers, arranged throughout the reception suite. The luncheon table was in green and pink. In the center of the table was a great pile of pink roses and mist ferns, with green satin ribbon trailing to the steps. At a signal from the hostess each guest drew a ribbon and with it came a above announcement. Toasts and best wishes were showered on the bride-elect, and the occasion was a very happy and delightful event. The guests were Misses Catherine Bryan, Lila Wright, Lida Carr Vaughan, Jean Venable, Anna Branson, Annie Louise Vaughan, Eleanor Green, Roberta Henshaw, Mrs. Frank Webb and Mrs. R. L. Flowers.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Few have returned from their bride's residence on Trinity campus.

Mrs. J. S. Carr, Jr., and children have returned from their residence in City, where they spent the summer.

Postmaster and Mrs. J. A. Giles are from a visit to Atlantic City and New York.

Rev. E. R. Leyburn and Miss Margaret Leyburn returned Thursday afternoon to their relatives in Baltimore, where they spent several weeks.

Major and Mrs. W. A. Guthrie and little grandson have returned from their summer home in Virginia, where they spent two weeks with relatives.

Mrs. Joe Graham and children have returned from Black Mountain, where they spent the summer.

Mrs. W. H. Branson and daughter, Miss Anna, have returned from Toxaway, where they spent some time.

Culpeper Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Culpeper, Va., September 9.—Mrs. George Roberts, of Richmond, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pugh.

Mrs. Polk Hill left this week for a visit to her son, Willie Hill, in Laurensville.

Mrs. E. H. Walker, who has been spending the summer with Dr. and Mrs. Tallaferro, near Madison Mills, was the guest this week of her aunt, Mrs. Wallace Nale.

Mrs. Leon Nale and her guest, Mrs. Jennifer Barton, were over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilkeson, on James's Hill. Mrs. Barton returned to her home in Washington on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nevin, of New York, who have been traveling in the North since their marriage in July, are the guests this week of Mrs. Nevin's brother, George Norris, at his home near Mitchell.

A party, consisting of Dr. Ricketts, Green Shackelford, Carroll Slaughter, and Graham Wallace, motored over to Culpeper Sunday, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roalin Vass for Labor Day, returning to Orange Monday night.

Mrs. Henry Blake and her younger children, who have been spending the summer at Culpeper, returned to their home in Greensboro, N. C., on Sunday. Miss Julia Miller Blake will remain here for the autumn.

Rev. J. W. Ware will leave Monday for a visit to his brother, Jack Ware, at the latter's home, near Berryville, where he expects to spend the remainder of the month. Miss Blanche Maddux is a guest this week of Mrs. Ware and other friends in Culpeper.

Mrs. Alfred Pulliam entertained at a charming little card party in compliment to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Geo. Robert, who expects to spend the week-end at the home of Mrs. Pulliam. The guests were Mesdames Roberts, J. J. Roberts, Silas Sooper, Alfred Pulliam and Tucker, Mrs. Geo. Robert, Sally Strother, Sadie Gilkeson and Gertrude Armstrong. Miss Sadie Gilkeson was the fortunate winner of the prize. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Edwin Gibson and small son, who spent the months of July and August at Ocean City, returned to Culpeper this week and are stopping with Mrs. Roslin Vass.

The most important social event of the week was the entertainment given at the home of Mrs. J. A. Giles on Monday evening by Miss Mary Jones in honor of Misses Marie Almy and Mary Almy, of Richmond, who have been her house guests for some time, and who were leaving for their homes the next day. Cards were played the first part of the evening, in which the prize went to Dr. Marion Lewis, while delightful music was a most pleasant feature of the occasion. A refreshment supper was served, which was followed by a watermelon feast. Miss Jones was charmingly assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Almy and Miss Sue Wigington, who also chaperoned.

Mrs. Roger Ricketts entertained with a unique and attractive party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of the second birthday of her twin nieces, Eudoxia and Ann Strother, children of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt Strother. Invitations were limited to the babies and the very small children among her acquaintance. After they had all come a picture was taken of the group, a copy of which will be presented to each child as a souvenir of the evening. Refreshments suitable to the ages of the guests were served, and each small girl was given a box of colored crayons, the boys were made happy by rubber balls, and the wee babies by a few little rattles.

Miss Sue Starke and her nieces, Misses Starke, Mrs. Farley, Mrs. Gary and Miss Gary, all of Richmond, who have been spending some weeks in Culpeper, left for home this week.
